Fabrice Hamaide appointed Chief Financial Officer of Infogrames Entertainment

Lyon, May 6th 2008 - Infogrames announces today the appointment of Fabrice Hamaide as Chief Financial Officer. In this position, Fabrice Hamaide will be responsible for the Finance, Investor Relations/ Financial Communications, Legal and Information Technology functions. By joining Infogrames, Fabrice Hamaide will also become a member of the company's Management board "COMEX" and reports to David Gardner, Chief Executive Officer.

Fabrice Hamaide succeeds to Yves Hannebelle, who has served as CFO since March 2006.

A 42 year old French national, Fabrice Hamaide was previously working at Parrot, where he was CFO of the company since 2005. Fabrice Hamaide started his career in 1988 and spent a year as a Consultant with Ernst & Young. Between 1991 and 1995, Mr. Hamaide worked as Credit Manager and Financial Controller for Eli Lilly and then for Kraft Suchard Jacobs in Paris. In 1996, he joined the computer peripheral company Logitech (based in Fremont, California) as a Director, in charge of worldwide strategic and financial planning. Two years later, he joined Talkway Communications, where he was based between Paris and Mountain View, California, and occupied the position of Vice President Finance and Operations, before being appointed President and CEO of the company. In 2005, Fabrice Hamaide joined Parrot in Paris as CFO. During his years at Parrot, Fabrice Hamaide helped structure the company's international growth, by creating the legal, HR and IT functions, changing the pricing policy and the distribution model of the company, and taking the company public on the eurolist b market.

Fabrice Hamaide holds a degree in Mathematics from the University of Jussieu, as well as a Master in Information Systems Design from the Sorbonne University. He also has an MBA in Finance, Strategic Marketing and Management of Organizations from Columbia Business School.

Commenting on Fabrice Hamaide's appointment, David Gardner, Chief Executive Officer of Infogrames, declared: "We are delighted to welcome Fabrice to the Group. With his appointment, we are continuing to boost our senior management team and we are particularly happy that Fabrice will be taking over this role. He is a great asset for the company, and his strong background and professional expertise are an excellent base for this senior responsibility within the Group."
